The Green Tour

Take a deep breath on a nice tour through the green belt of Frankfurt City.

Meeting Point: Old Opera

The Velotaxis start in the Bockenheim green area, the first small part of which is called the Liesel-Christ-park. The journey leads past a small pond, the Florentine fountain and the Nebbiens garden house. With a side view of Frankfurt's oldest landmark, the Eschenheim tower, the Velotaxis turn into the Eschenheim green area and pass the so-called citizen garden. The many subsequent monuments, fountains and sculptures in the entire green belt are mostly reminiscent of Frankfurt personalities, artists or events.

The tour will continue from the Friedberger park complex to the Obermain park complex, the Mainufer, the Nizza, the Untermain park complex, the Gallusanlage and the Taunusanlage. The city stages and the frequently photographed EURO sign are located on the Theaterplatz. Finally, the Taunusanlage in particular offers an impressive view of the different bank towers. The tour ends again at the Old Opera.

The Velotaxi drivers pass the trendy gastronomy and turn into the Osthafen-park, which invites people of all ages to be active and relax. The districts of Ostend and Oberrad are connected by the Honsell Bridge, which was reconstructed in 2013, and the newly opened Osthafen Bridge. From here and for the next 2 Velotaxi kilometers you can now admire the wonderful typical Frankfurt skyline view. On the Mainwasenweg and the following Deutschherrnufer there is a lot of activity from many recreational athletes to be seen. Some restaurants offer typical Frankfurt specialties. At the the Eiserner Steg, the pedestrian bridge that connects Frankfurt’s old town with the district of Sachsenhausen, the remarkable Museum Embankment begins. It is one of the most important locations for museums in Germany and Europe. The crossing of the Main river begins at the Friedensbrücke with a view of the Eastharbour. From there the tour continues along the banks of Untermainkai, past Nizza to the starting point at Mainkai.
